

Short description of the events, main programs, attendant programs

Sustainable Food Chain World Summit, Hungary 2010

Food Chain – Intercity - World Student Conference, Hungary 2010.

Presentations of students studying all over the world will be held in any topics being attached to a food chain in the frame of a scientific conference series organized on Hungarian and Romanian universities. The conference series is going to be held in 2011 but the preparatory work and the introduction of the organizing team is in 2010.

Fair and Sustainable Food Chain – Foodlawment Conference

Organizing Foodlawment is an association formulates such recommendations for EU's legislators, which take aim the exemplary and ethical behavior of all of the characters of the food chain. Furthermore they go into detail about the definition of considerable critical points along the food chain, and an action plan is compiled onto the Hungarian EU 2011 presidency's time.

Conference on the 2011 EU Food Chain Presidency

Disputation of the vocational substances prepared by sections and vocational commissions affecting the Foodlawment regions, drafting of recommendations in a food chain safety topic with EU's academic specialist politicians on a common forum)

X. Jubilee World Meat Hygiene and Inspection Congress, Hungary 2010

Hungary has the honor to organize this high important event. It will be the tenth conference in a series which started in the Netherlands in 1984, and has been hosted by Canada, Poland, USA, the Netherlands, Australia, Mexico and most recently Canada.

The participant countries recommend themselves their lecturers for the meat hygiene magisterial specialists' conference. Hereby all countries and continent are given a chance to present his magisterial and scientific activity fundamental in terms of meat and meat products on an interactive manner.

World Conference on Meat Science in Practice, Hungary 2010

The presentation of the results of the practical meat science occurs in the under mentioned topics: slaughter, transport, packaging, the newest slaughterhouse and laboratory techniques, the practices of a large scale firm and small producer production of the best meat products). Aim is to organize a meeting point for the practical and academic meat science and inspection activities on this area.

World Championship and Exhibition of Meat and Meat Products, 2010

The world's meat products in different categories can be entered for the competition, and then the products get to test in local semifinals. The first three placed producers keep an exhibition place where they can organize a tasting forum from the prizewinning products in Budapest.

Meat and Consumers World Forum, Hungary 2010

The aim is the promotion of the conscious consumption of the participant consumer circle. The conference has a forum character. The consumers may obtain the magisterial experts' and the scientific specialists' authentic information about the contexts of the meat consumption and health.

Hungarian Veterinary Meat Science Memorial Congress, 2010

On the conference beside the resuscitation of the traditions of the meat hygiene and the veterinary science we commemorate onto the outstanding specialists of the more, than 220 year old Hungarian veterinary higher educations in Europe's cultural capital, Pécs.

Accompanying programs

Hungarian Foodstuffs- Food Empire

The conferences and expos are following with more festival programs are attached to Budapest's fizzing cultural life tightly. Their aim is to illuminate the food chain from a special aspect of the fine arts, the religion, the cinema, the sport, the children, the music and the dance.

The Best of the Hungarian Food Chain 2010. Competition and Exhibition

On the festival of the special Hungarian foods the participants have the opportunity to taste the Hungarian food and drink specialties.

Food Chain Books and Education World Exhibition and Forum, Hungary 2010

There is an opportunity on this cultural event to learn books, printed and electronic publications and other information carriers appeared in the topic being attached to the food chain. It is possible to participate on author-reader meetings and film projections.

During the program beside the English, the dubbing interpretation will be happening on additional languages according to the claims, makes the real dialogue possible.

